

Account Manager - Construction

We are a comprehensive high-end residential Construction, Millwork and Lifestyle Management Services company, providing fine quality home building, renovations, custom cabinetry, architectural woodworking and residential management services for discerning clientele in the Boston, Newport and Nantucket markets.

Our continued growth and market expansion requires that we add an accomplished Account Manager to our team based in Holden, MA. This is an outstanding opportunity for an effective professional to plan, develop and manage significant projects, cultivating Woodmeister's reputation as the premier Master Builder firm in the luxury estate residential market.

Working closely with qualified customers, architects, designers and our in-house design support team; you will develop all aspects of the project from initial programming, scope, budget and design development, to construction documentation and management.

Responsibilities include client relationship management, developing and defining the scope of work, schedule milestone development, estimate and budget management, oversight of the design and construction documentation process, launching of the project management team and oversight through completion to ensure all projects meet our exacting standards of quality and customer satisfaction.

You should have at least 10 years of demonstrated management experience in high-end residential construction, a thorough knowledge of the building trades, the ability to develop relationships with customers, architects, designers and subcontractors with the leadership to effectively cultivate projects on time and at budget. Knowledge of high-end details, materials, finishes, architectural styles and custom woodworking principals is highly desired.

If you are committed to excellence and complete customer satisfaction, and are ready to take your skills to the next level, this may be your opportunity. In addition to a competitive salary and benefits package, we offer a growing, entrepreneurial environment, which recognizes and values your contributions.
